

SUICIDE PREVENTION

Suicide and Youth

Wednesday, May 6

6 p.m.

Rockwood Public Safety Building

675 NE 181st Ave.

Question, Persuade, Refer (QPR) is a brief, evidence-based suicide prevention training that equips adults who work with youth to recognize warning signs of suicide and respond with confidence. This training focuses on how suicide risk can appear among youth and young adults, including warning signs that may show up in schools, social settings, or online environments.
