IV. Alice Busch, Gresham's Emergency Manager

Presentation with Q&A on Disaster Response Readiness, including emergency access and evacuation notification zones.

Alice Busch, CEM, EMT, EMPA-X, began her career in the fire service, spending more than twenty years providing direct services to communities across the Pacific Northwest in a variety of roles on incidents ranging from small local emergencies to large, complex, multi-agency responses. In 2013 she became an emergency manager for Multnomah County, and in 2026 she began her service as the emergency manager for the City of Gresham. Alice works in partnership with communities in a collaborative framework.
